PERFORMING ARTS SERIES

COLERE QUARTET

TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 2023 - 7:30 PM

St. Charles Borromeo Convocation Hall

Winners of the 2020 Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition and the 2019 Plogman Chamber Music Competition, the Colere Quartet comes to Lewis to present an exciting concert of music written for saxophone quartet. Founded in 2017 at the University of Iowa, the Colere Quartet is an Iowa-City based ensemble comprised of saxophonists John Cummins, Elissa Kana, Greg Rife, and Dennis Kwok. Colere is a Latin word meaning "to cultivate." This name was inspired by Iowa's expansive farmland and the group's commitment to cultivating musical life in the Midwest and beyond. You will not want to miss this concert of vibrant music played by one of the top saxophone quartets today.

MOTUS THEATER: JUSTUS

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 2023 - 7:30 PM

Philip Lynch Theatre

Join us for a theatrical production that supports community leaders who are impacted by carceral systems. JustUs is a collection of artfully crafted autobiographical monologues that expose the devastating impact of the criminal legal system and inspire action toward a vision of true justice. Since premiering at the National Association of Community and Restorative Justice Conference in 2019 in front of 1600 people, Motus' JustUs monologues have served as keynotes for ten national and international conferences and have been read by law enforcement, district attorneys, DOC staff, legislators, and other Colorado state and community leaders. More information at motustheater.org.

Arts&Ideas Lewis programming is made possible by generous support from the National Endowment of the Arts, the Illinois Arts Council Agency, Arts Midwest, and the Illinois Humanities.
